We are inviting applications for the Sports Travel Awards for postdoctoral researchers and Ph.D. students to attend an international conference of their choice between July 2022 and April 2023. Two prizes of 800 CHF each will be awarded to one postdoctoral researcher and one Ph.D. student.

The awardee will be determined by the award committee.

2022 TRAVEL AWARDS

FOR POSTDOCTORAL RESEARCHERS AND PHD STUDENTS

Qualified candidates must meet the following criteria:

- Postdoctoral researchers (within three years of receiving their Ph.D.) or currently enrolled Ph.D. students, undertaking sports-related research.
- Present their own original work as first authors as a poster or oral presentation at the conference at which the travel award application will be made.

Applicants are required to submit the following documents (the entire application package should be submitted as a single PDF file):

- Cover letter that outlines current and future work and why the applicant wishes to have the support of Sports (2 pages maximum);
- Current CV, including a complete list of education, publications, and presentations (<10 pages);
- The conference to be attended, a copy of the abstract and acceptance letter, or the anticipated decision date;
- A letter of recommendation from a supervising mentor, research director, or Department Chair (1 page).

The awardee will be determined by the award committee.

Winners are required to send a brief report of their participation after the congress.

Applicants are not required to have a prior submission or publication in Sports. Any questions regarding the Travel Awards can be directed to sports@mdpi.com.

Please email your PDF applications to sports@mdpi.com by 10 April 2022. The winner will be announced in May 2022.
