Advancements in Heart Failure Research

Edited by: Tzu-Hurng Cheng and Ju-Chi Liu

This Reprint presents a curated collection of peer-reviewed articles from the Special Issue "Advancements in Heart Failure Research: 2nd Edition", published in Life. Highlighting recent progress in the understanding, diagnosis, and treatment of heart failure, with a focus on molecular mechanisms, pharmacological interventions, and translational strategies, the Reprint aims to serve as a valuable resource for researchers, clinicians, and students engaged in cardiovascular science and therapeutic innovation.
