Ethical and Psychosocial Aspects of Genomics in the Neonatal Period

Edited by: Lynn Wein Bush and Olaf Bodamer

This first IJNS Special Issue on Ethical–Psychosocial Aspects of Genomics highlights the Neonatal Period with 17 peer-reviewed publications spanning Commentaries, Original Research articles, Reviews, Articles, and Opinions. We open with two invited historical reflections by distinguished colleagues, Dr. Harvey Levy and Dr. Rod Howell, both masterful storytellers and legends in the field.
