A conference celebrating Remo Ruffini's 80th birthday was held in Nice, France, from 16 to 18 May 2022, with the participation of over 90 scientists. Among the contributions presented orally there were those by Rashid Sunyaev, Peter Predehl, Demetrios Christodoulou, Thibault Damour, Nathalie Deruelle, Roy Kerr, Tsvi Piran, Claus Laemmerzahl, Asghar Qadir, Chen Pisin, and Marco Tavani, in the presence of Agnès Rampal, the representative of the Mayor of Nice. An extraordinary moment of the meeting in Nice was the delivery of the Marcel Grossmann Award to Rashid Sunyaev and Peter Predehl for the Spectr–Roentgen–Gamma (SRG) mission. This volume contains 10 papers by some of the meeting participants and collaborators of Remo Ruffini.
