Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Scientia Pharmaceutica is a unique journal offering insight into the diverse fields of Pharmaceutical Sciences. One advantage of Scientia Pharmaceutica is that it covers a very wide scope, starting from pharmacobotany and pharmacognosy/pharmaceutical biology, through natural products/pharmaceutical/medicinal chemistry, analytics, pharmacology and pharmaceutical technology/drug development, to clinical studies and the practice of pharmacy. The journal publishes high standard papers submitted by researchers of the respective and neighboured disciplines, thus allowing a broad overview, including nutritional sciences, hospital pharmacy, history of pharmacy, etc.

Scientia Pharmaceutica is a worthy journal for everybody interested in the continued progress and latest developments in the Pharmaceutical Sciences.

Editor-in-Chief

Prof. Dr. Helmut Viernstein
